Policy in case of illness

What happens if a student is sick?

Student health is a matter of great importance to me. That is why everyone who gets tutoring, must be free from infectious diseases. Children who have a fever, cough, or have an infection (throat, ear, eye, etc.) should not be taken to tutoring.

When is it better for a student to stay at home?

- * When the student has taken antibiotics in the past twelve (12) hours.
- * If the student has a cough.
- * If the student has symptoms of possible infectious diseases.
- * If the student has had a rash, diarrhoea or vomiting during the previous twenty-four (24) hours.

What happens if a student is going to be missing his or her session?

Then notify me immediately. I offer rescheduling options. There is also the possibility not to make use of rescheduling and to continue with the lessons the next hour the child has lessons.

If I am sick, I will inform you as soon as possible and make sure I offer possibilities to reschedule.

When a student has been absent due to illness, he/she should not return to tutoring until he/she has been without a fever for at least twenty-four (24) hours.

Policy in the event of absence, late arrival and payment policy

Giving the student the opportunity to learn through tuition is very important to me. That is why the student must then be on time to get the most out of the lessons.

In the event that the student is going to arrive late, please contact me immediately. I cannot guarantee that the lost time can be made up.

For example, if the tutoring starts at 3 p.m. and the student is 15 minutes late, then the tutoring will still end at 4 p.m. If the student is going to arrive more than half an hour late, it is better to cancel the session. If the student is not present during the tutoring session without contacting me, I am not obliged to give the opportunity to reschedule the lesson. If payment has been made in advance, I do not have to offer a refund.

Payment of tuition fees must be received before the session starts. If the payment is not received, the student cannot get tutored.
